The advertisement features a central image of a young child with a wide, joyful smile. The background is a wooden surface scattered with various colorful toy cars. Two callout boxes are overlaid on the image. The left box, titled '次回がまちどおしい' (Next time, please!), shows a calendar interface with days 4 through 8 highlighted, and below it, a sequence of boxes representing a subscription cycle (1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th). The right box, titled 'オーダーメイドに対応!' (Supports custom orders!), displays a product selection interface with a bottle icon, a dropdown menu, and several input fields for customization options. At the bottom, the text '定期購入・頒布会に強い' (Strong for regular purchases and distribution events) is written in white, followed by the 'easy my shop' logo in blue and yellow.
