岡山から世界に、新たな価値を創造し続けるSDGs推進研究大学

TOP GLOBAL UNIVERSITY JAPAN | Japan. Committed to the SDGs | SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The image is a promotional poster for an archaeological discovery. It features an aerial photograph of a site in Tsushima, Okayama, with white lines and circles highlighting newly discovered front-late circular mounds. The poster includes the logos of Okayama University and RIDC (Research Institute for the Promotion of Collaborative Research), along with the text '津島で新たに前方後円墳を発見！' (Newly discovered front-late circular mounds in Tsushima!). It also mentions the '岡山大学 文学部考古学資料館 観音' (Okayama University Faculty of Letters Archaeology Museum Kannon), '日本建築学会 岡山支部' (Architectural Institute of Japan Okayama Branch), and '岡山大学 津島キャンパス' (Okayama University Tsushima Campus). At the bottom, it states '岡山から世界に、新たな価値を創造し続けるSDGs推進研究大学' (Okayama University, a research university that continues to create new value from Okayama to the world, promoting SDGs) and features logos for 'TOP GLOBAL UNIVERSITY JAPAN', 'Japan. Committed to the SDGs', and 'SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS'.
