Qnap logo

Logos for VMware, Citrix, and Microsoft

The image shows two Qnap network switches, the QGD-1600 and QGD-1602, stacked in a server rack. The switches are illuminated with blue light. The Qnap logo is visible in the top right corner of the advertisement. Below the product names, there is a line of text describing the switches as an affordable series for VM applications or ADRA NDR software applications. At the bottom left, there is the ADRA NDR logo. To the right of the ADRA NDR logo are three small icons: a blue square with a white 'X' (VMware), a blue square with a white 'C' (Citrix), and a blue square with a white 'M' (Microsoft).
