地域と地球の未来を共創し世界の革新に参与する研究大学：岡山大学

The banner features a background of stylized, colorful leaves in shades of green, yellow, and orange. At the top left, the logos for Okayama University and the Resource Plant Science Research Institute are displayed. The central text announces that Professor Nobuhiko Sasaki from the Resource Plant Science Research Institute has received the 82nd San'yō Shimbun Award. A small inset photo shows Professor Sasaki in a suit holding a red award. At the bottom, a tagline reads 'Regional and Earth's Future, Co-creating Innovation in the World: Okayama University' followed by several accreditation logos.
