The advertisement features a festive Christmas theme with a red and green border, snowflakes, and hanging ornaments. It displays several black and silver SMA connectors. Two circular insets show a close-up of the connector's mating interface. The text is primarily in Japanese, with '2024 Christmas Campaign' in English. The product name 'MC100-SET' and technical specifications are clearly listed. The promotion details, including the number of winners and the contest rules, are highlighted in green and red.
